

Brendan T. Conry of Conry Asset Management, LLC. Attends Commonwealth Retirement Symposium

Kensington, CT (June 1, 2015) — Brendan T. Conry, Founder & Principal of Conry Asset Management, LLC. in Kensington, CT, attended the fifth annual Retirement Symposium—an educational conference hosted by Commonwealth Financial Network[®], the nation’s largest privately held independent broker/dealer–RIA. The symposium, “Taking the Lead: Exploring New Strategies to Influence Change,” took place in Boston, Massachusetts, May 31–June 2, 2015, and provided new approaches and tangible ideas for positioning financial advisors at the forefront of a continually evolving retirement plan industry.

Throughout the two-day event, attendees gathered with a targeted group to participate in advanced retirement-focused educational sessions and engaged with 401(k) industry experts, as well as with Commonwealth’s home office staff. The agenda included formal presentations, workshops, keynote speakers, and breakout sessions that focused on the following strategies:

- Driving retirement readiness through plan health
- Best practices to effectively drive better 401(k) plan participant actions
- Next-generation thinking and why millennials matter to your future business
- Building your business via social media and maximizing business opportunities
- Leading the dialogue about better retirement outcomes with your clients

“Commonwealth proudly hosted Brendan to take part in this exclusive conference for our leading qualified plan advisors” said Paul Mahan, Commonwealth’s senior vice president, retirement consulting services. “This symposium speaks to our commitment in this key market segment, and we will continue to expand our depth and breadth of services and other products aimed at enhancing our advisors’ competitive advantage.”
